menu and shopping guide

Elegant as the season itself is this double-decker ham steak with prepared stuffing between the layers. It's a most unusual main dish to serve and will be a welcome change to the usual holiday meals.

For this glamorous dish, buy two thick juicy ham steaks. Score the fat edges of each steak with knife or scissors and stud the edges with cloves. Place one slice in large baking dish or casserole. Top with layer of Mrs. Cubbison's prepared dressing, then the other slice of ham. This dressing is a cinch to make and it is seasoned just right.

As a special flavor treat with ham, try pineapple as an added attraction. Open one No. 2 can of sliced pineapple. Pour out 1/2 cup pineapple juice, add 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, and 2 table-spoons brown sugar. Save this to baste the meat. Use the rest of the juice in the dressing in the place of the required amount of water. Then chop about one-half the pineapple slices into bite-size pieces and fold them into the packaged dressing. Use the remaining slices to garnish the platter

Dozens of tablets and capsules believed to be restricted drugs were confiscated from a Lomita man Monday night by Torrance police.

Booked for possession of 252nd Street, Lomita. The suspect was arrested in a parking lot behind a bar at 3103 W. 190th St., after police received a tipoff that drugs were being sold in the area.

Taken from Swanner's pants pocket and car, and from the ground nearby, were 30 red capsules in a wax paper bag, one plastic bag containing six white double-scored tablets and two yellow capsules, a cigarette pack containing 40 red capsules, and seven envelopes containing 60 white double-scored tablets.

The red capsules resemble the drug second and the white tablets appeared to be benzedrine.
